Coding basics
Arrays/Lists

What is an array or list?

An array or list is a group of values stored in a collection. These values may be added to, changed or rearranged.

In a game we could have an array called "top scores" and this would store the 10 highest scores of the game along with the player's name.

Using arrays/lists in code

see more at www.codingireland.ie