What to do

Use only the two cups and the string. Try to send a message across your table without the listener reading your lips. Try a few set-ups, then write down the one that worked best.

Our set-ups

What we tried	Did the message get through?	What we noticed

Best set-up

Why do you think that set-up worked best?

Marconi sent messages across the Atlantic from Clifden with no wire at all. What changed in Ireland because of that?

My I wonder question for this year
