

What do living things do?

living-things

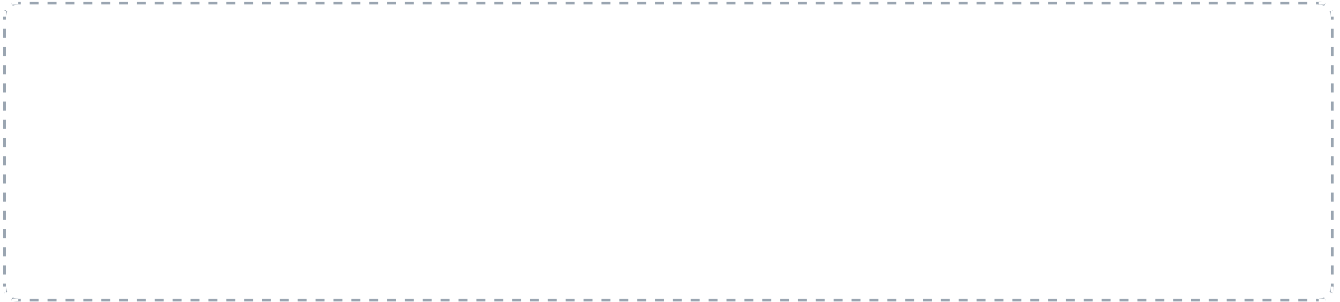

What to do

Draw or write one living thing and one object you watched. Then record one clear difference.

The living thing I watched

The object I watched

One clear difference: what the living one does that the object never does

